

An employee publication of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice

January/February 2013
Volume 20 Issue 3

Saluting Employees

Crain Unit Employee of the Year

Correctional Officer V Lisa Brugman was named Crain Unit Employee of the Year in a January presentation ceremony attended by former Texas Board of Criminal Justice chairman and unit namesake Christina Melton Crain. Brugman was one of twelve nominees previously selected as unit Employee of the Month winners.

Current Crain Unit Warden Loretta Carmona cited the reason for the award selection, saying, "Officer Brugman was chosen because of her work ethic and professionalism. She is always willing to lend a hand to fellow officers and is just one example of the many dedicated TDCJ staff members whose job it is to uphold our mission to protect the public on a daily basis." ●

Photo by Terry Edwards

Former TBCJ Chairman Christina Melton Crain congratulates Crain Unit Officer of the Year Correctional Officer Lisa Brugman.

